

ANNOUNCING THE 2010 AFGLC FORUM

The National Center of the American Foundation for Greek Language and Culture, in concert with its three centers (Tampa, Tri State, and Stony Brook) and the International Foundation for Greek Language and Culture (IFGLC- Athens) are pleased to announce that the Foundation will be again hosting a Forum in 2010, to be held on February 18-20. For this upcoming Forum, events will be distributed in two locations: Tarpon Springs and Tampa, Florida. This Forum will build on successes of prior years' presentations and formats, with the organizing committee anticipating that it will be the most comprehensive and academically rigorous event held by the AFGLC to date. Those interested in presenting at the Forum should contact Dr. Balis, AFGLC President, directly at +1 813 205 4501.
