

Margo and George Behrakis

Margo and George Behrakis. Mr. Behrakis, who received his degree in pharmacy from Northeastern University, has devoted his career to the pharmaceutical industry. He and his wife have been generous benefactors to many universities, served the Orthodox Archdiocese, and helped to found the Gorbachev Foundation of North America. Mr. Behrakis has been honored with the Ellis Island Medal of Honor and the Lifetime Achievement Award for eminent Greek Americans.

Reverend Dr. Stanley Harakas

Reverend Doctor Stanley S. Harakas, Archbishop Iakovos professor of theology emeritus at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox Seminary and former dean, received his degrees from Boston University and the Universities of Athens and Thessaloniki. Author of numerous works, he has served as a parish priest in New England and Florida, and has pioneered the theological study of ecology.

The logo of the AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR GREEK LANGUAGE AND CULTURE, AFGLC, is taken from a scene on a cup (found at Vulci in Etruria and currently in the British Museum) painted by the Athenian painter Douris around 480 BC. It shows a school scene where a master unrolls a scroll with an epic verse on it. The verse is in the style of Homer, but does not come from either the Iliad or Odyssey.

Μοῖσα μοι	Muse,
ἀμ>φι Σκάμανδρον	I begin to sing for myself
ἑύρων ἔρχομαι	of fair-flowing Scamander
ἀείψιδεν

The design that partially borders the front and back pages of the program was taken from the Elgin Marbles Wing of the British Museum, and illustrates the majestic Meander of the Parthenon frieze. This Hellenic design with its characteristic blue and gold compound undulations was reserved for the most august Athenian state structures. As a variant of the classical Greek key, the meander reflects the continuity of the Hellenic Universe, through the undulating representation of waves and their interplay into the atmosphere.

American Foundation for Greek Language & Culture

AFGLC Mission Statement

The fundamental mission of the AFGLC (American Foundation for Greek Language and Culture) is to assist in the preservation and enhancement of Greek Culture and Language in the United States through our institutions of higher learning. The Foundation was established by a group of concerned Greeks and Philhellenes across America, whose role is to make available to the present as well as secure for the future the historic and cultural role of the Hellenic tradition and language. We strongly believe that we can most effectively accomplish this by the establishment of “INTERDISCIPLINARY CENTERS OF HELLENIC STUDIES” (ICHS) at various academic institutions on a regular basis across the United States. Each of the ICHS will typically consist of five endowed professors in the following areas:

The foundation is situated as a nonprofit organization with its headquarters in the State of Florida. Its scope and patronage are envisioned as national and international with particular emphasis on the bonds that exist between Greece and the United States.

AFGLC welcomes people who share with us the conviction that the revival of interest in the Greek Language and the preservation of the Hellenic heritage are of great importance, given the role that both played in the formation of the values and ideas of our beautiful country. It will be a time to rejoice and celebrate when the students in our colleges and universities have once again the opportunity to study the wealth of meanings that have given our western civilization its solid conceptual foundations in philosophy, in language, the arts and the sciences.

We must not forget what the famous philosopher Alfred North Whitehead said: “That all philosophy is but a series of footnotes of Plato” or Sir Henry Summer Maine’s significant remark “except for the blind forces of nature nothing moves on this earth that is not Greek in its origin.”

“If we do not succeed in the rejuvenation and enhancement of Hellenism in the Americas, History will not forgive us.”

John H. Erickson

John H. Erickson, Dean of St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary and Peter N. Gramowics Professor of Church History, has degrees from Harvard, Yale and St. Vladimir's. He is an eminent theologian and historian of Eastern Orthodoxy, and the author of six books and innumerable articles on all aspects of Orthodox religion and Church history.

Marilyn Rouvelas

Marilyn Rouvelas, who received her degree in history from the American University, is the author of the best-selling Guide to Greek Traditions and Customs in America and editor of several popular books on Orthodoxy. She has done research for the Atlantic Monthly magazine and been on the production staff of WETA public television and the Discovery Channel. She is active in the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of North and South America.

Robin Waterfield

Robin Waterfield, a prolific and respected translator of more than twenty volumes of Greek philosophy, plays and histories, is also the author of a comprehensive history of the city of Athens. He has taught at Williams College and St. Andrew's University (Scotland) in the UK. He divides his time between Great Britain and Greece.

Richard E. Rubenstein

Dr. Richard E. Rubenstein, professor of conflict resolution and public affairs at George Mason University, is a graduate of Harvard College, Oxford University (Rhodes Scholar) and Harvard School of Law. An expert on terrorism, among other subjects, he is the author of numerous books, including Aristotle's Children and When Jesus Became God.

AIMS & OBJECTIVES

1. To assist in establishing and enhancing the offering of studies in the Greek language and fields of Greek literature, history, philosophy, art, society and culture at academic institutions.
2. To assist in the establishment of curricula in the Greek language and related fields, especially literature, leading to a baccalaureate degree.
3. To encourage and assist academic institutions in establishing graduate programs in the aforementioned areas of Greek studies.
4. To work with other organizations in the United States whose goals and objectives are to promote and enhance the teaching of the Greek language, Greek literature and Greek culture at academic institutions.
5. To assist academic institutions in the collection of research material and various data pertaining to Greek culture and studies in general.
6. To assist in the creation of archives of Greek American families and organizations who have played important roles in the history of America.
7. To assist in establishing and organizing (a) visiting lecture programs involving prominent scholars in Greek culture and civilization, and (b) exchange programs of prominent scholars in Greek studies between academic institutions in Greece and the United States.
8. To organize seminars, symposia and conferences for the promotion of the aims and objectives of AFGLC.
9. To assist in the publishing of scholarly works on Greek civilization and culture and all the other related fields.
10. To engage in projects and programs involving the aforementioned fields as the Trustees and Directors deem appropriate.

“Today, as of old, Greece is of the utmost importance to every man who is seeking to find himself. And perhaps I should add that no people in the world are as much in need of what Greece has to offer as the American people . . . Economically it may seem unimportant, but spiritually Greece is still the mother of all nations, the fountain-head of wisdom and inspiration.”
